

SCSH LADY PUTTERS BUSINESS MEETING – Nov. 6, 2014 (#1 of 4)

Before opening the official Lady Putters Business Meeting, President Nancy Hansen welcomed everybody to the welcome back brunch. She introduced the summer players, told some anecdotes and asked for applause for as she put it “the fearless few.” She also explained the Trivia quiz and gave a quick summary. She then introduced the officers and chairs and told a little about their duties. She also announced that the welcome mat displayed on the edge of the stage was to be the prize in the drawing of the pink sheets filled out by each member updating their information.

Nancy officially called the business meeting to order at 10:20 a.m.

The minutes from the May 8, 2014 business meeting were approved by membership vote as read.

Maureen Whittaker gave the Treasurer’s report. Year to date (October 31,2014) we show a balance of $4454.08 Her report was approved by membership vote. Each month the treasurer’s report will be available on the website.

There was no old business. Under new business:

Nancy expressed the goal that more members will access our website for information which will be updated daily as needed.

She explained the contents of the new handbooks and stated that in accessing our website from the Shadow Hills main website we are on page 3, not 2. She then went over the calendar of club play and events. She noted that every third Monday we would have a Mystery hole that would earn any member who had a hole in one a $2 free play certificate. We will try to come up with a way for those who wish to have breakfast or lunch together after putting on the second Monday of each month. There will be more dress up days this year, which will be announced as we go along.

This year the golf pro shop will take over the weekly setup of the greens for play. Carol Mc Coy was instrumental in arranging this new way of doing it.

Nancy noted that Sheryl Sullivan needs help with sign ups on Monday mornings. She asked people to visit the stations in the back of the room where they could order uniforms, pay dues, sign up for membership, sign up for volunteering, etc. She went over the opportunities in detail, and told one and all to be sure and take time to enjoy the scrapbooks of our history on display. She then encouraged any members who could to stay a few moments after today’s meeting and help clean up.

Our first day of putting for the season is next Monday, November 10th. There will be two sessions beginning with the 8:00 one.

The business meeting was adjourned at 10:45 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Sue Kester -- Secretary
